

NORTH CAROLINA PROBATION AND PAROLE ASSOCIATION

To Our Community Partners,

The North Carolina Probation & Parole Association (NCPA) is a professional, non-profit organization dedicated to promoting high standards among community supervision practitioners across North Carolina. Through training, collaboration, and innovation, NCPA supports the professionals responsible for probation and parole services statewide.

We are pleased to invite local businesses and community partners for support our 28th Annual Training Institute, taking place September 2–4, 2026, in Greensboro, North Carolina. This event will host approximately 200+ participants from across the state for three days of professional development and networking.

We are seeking your support in a few meaningful ways:

Program Book Advertising

Businesses are invited to purchase an advertisement in our official Training Institute program book. This publication is distributed to every attendee and provides an excellent opportunity to promote your business directly to professionals who live and work in communities across North Carolina.

Raffle Item Donations

Businesses may also choose to donate items or gift certificates to be used as raffle prizes during the Training Institute. Raffle donations are a popular and engaging way to showcase your business while supporting our event, Businesses will be recognized for their donation during the raffle drawing.

Welcome Tote Donations

Donations of promotional items or useful products for our attendee welcome totes. These items provide high visibility for your business and allow you to place your brand directly into the hands of our participants throughout the event. Item examples: pens, notepads, hand sanitizer, snacks, bottled water, etc.

Why Support the NCPA Training Institute?

Probation and parole officers play a vital role in public safety and rehabilitation, and your partnership helps ensure they receive the training and resources needed to serve effectively.
